Christian Stewart receives FFI Interdisciplinary Award

WEEKLY EDITION • OCTOBER 27, 2021

From FFI Practitioner

In this week's edition, FFI Practitioner is pleased to present a podcast interview with Christian Stewart, the 2021 recipient of the FFI Interdisciplinary Award. In the podcast, hosted by Jordan Rich, Christian discusses the importance of family learning and development and the emerging role of a "Chief Learning Officer" in the family office field, among other topics.

CHRISTIAN STEWART

Christian Stewart works with enterprising families as a process consultant, coach, and family meeting facilitator. He founded Family Legacy Asia in July 2008 to help Asian families preserve their family wealth for generations by providing them with independent and objective advice on effective family governance practices. Christian also advises a small number of families on family learning and development and acts as a Chief Learning Officer. He is the recipient of the Family Firm Institute's Interdisciplinary Achievement Award for 2021. He can be reached at cstewart@familylegacyasia.com.

INTERVIEWER: Jordan Rich is celebrating a quarter century at one of America's top legacy radio stations, interviewing thousands of celebrities, authors, actors and interesting personalities throughout his career. Jordan is co-owner of Chart Productions Inc, and also teaches voice-over acting. His main focus these days is in podcast creation and production, featuring conversations with the world's most creative people.
