

Introducing the 2019- 2021 UK/Europe Regional Planning Committee

AUGUST 30, 2019

In this issue of FFI on Friday we are pleased to introduce the 2019-2021 UK/Europe Regional Planning Committee. This is a new FFI committee that held its first meeting in March 2019 at KPMG in London. It was hosted by KPMG Enterprise Centre of Excellence for Family Business program director, Daniel Trimarchi.

THE PURPOSE OF THE COMMITTEE IS TO:

Expand the presence of FFI as an organization and presence of FFI members in the UK and Europe in the next three years, build enthusiasm for the 2021 October conference in London, and promote the multidisciplinary, global approach that is at the core of FFI's mission "to be the most influential global network of thought leaders in the family enterprise field."

TO IMPLEMENT THE GOALS OF THE COMMITTEE, IT HAS AGREED TO:

- Devise a series of events in 2019, 2020, and 2021 that follow the FFI vision of educating, connecting, and inspiring professionals and academics in the field to better serve their client base and develop new modes of research and conceptual modes. Currently planned are:
  - A September 24 event hosted by KPMG and featuring Kris Verburgh, MD. This will be a master class dealing with issues of longevity as they relate to family enterprise. It will be hosted by Tom McGinness of KPMG and held at the KPMG Canary Wharf office. Moderator will be Alex Hayward, GEN faculty member and EY Global Enablement Leader for Family Enterprise.

- A Spring 2020 event is being planned. Details and location to be announced.
- Raise the profile of the committee by writing a series of FFI Practitioner articles in the coming three years that feature UK and Europe as models for multi-generational global enterprise activity, research, and professional expertise. Committee members Elizabeth Bagger, Maya Prabhu, and Bilal Zein agreed to write for FFI Practitioner in 2019.
  - See Elizabeth's article, "Behavioural Risk in Family Business: Some thoughts on individual stories" from June 25
  - See Bilal's article, "The Role of Risk Management in a Family Enterprise," which appeared on August 28
