

PREPARED EXCLUSIVELY FOR FFI MEMBERS

Featuring FFI Organizational Members – Part II

MAY 03, 2019

INTRODUCTION

In March, we introduced you to eight of the FFI organizational members.

Today, in our second issue of this year's series, we are pleased to feature six more distinguished organizations and educational institutions that are FFI organizational members.

BOCCONI UNIVERSITY

The Bocconi University logo, featuring the word 'Bocconi' in a white serif font inside a dark rectangular box.

Bocconi University was founded in 1971 in Milan. Its mission is to “empower lives through knowledge and imagination,” developing responsible and thoughtful leaders by generating and disseminating innovative managerial knowledge.

Bocconi members in FFI include Mario D. Amore, Guido Corbetta, Alessandro Minichilli, Daniela Montemerlo, Paolo Morosetti, Fabio Quarato and FFI Fellow Carlo Salvato, who is vice chair of the FFI board of directors and faculty chair for the FFI Global Education Network (GEN).

Read a summary of “Family Firm Governance Results Linked to Context” co-authored by Mario Amore, Guido Corbetta, and Alessandro Minichilli.

Listen to Amore and Minichilli discuss “Sacrificing the Firstborn in Family Business Succession.”

SINGAPORE MANAGEMENT UNIVERSITY

Since 2010, Singapore Management University (SMU) has recognized the emergence of Asian business families and discerned that they require specifically contextualized thought leadership and applied knowledge. In response to the growing needs of business families in Asia, SMU established the Business Families Institute (BFI) in 2012. It collaborates with various partners, academic or practice, to be a leader in Asian business family-related knowledge. SMU members are FFI board member Annie Koh; Esther Kong, CFBA; Wee-Liang Tan; and John Tay.

Read "Overcoming the Ups and Downs of Running a Family Business," a report on a newly launched case study led by Annie Koh and the BFI.

PREVIOUS EDITION

One of the hallmarks of FFI is its ongoing commitment to advance the field of family enterprise research through its scholarly journal, Family Business Review (FBR). At the beginning of each year, we look back at the outstanding work of FBR and honor people in two categories — authors and reviewers — for the year just completed. Please join us in congratulating the following recipients!
