Join in Celebrating the 2020 GEN graduates—An invitation from the FFI Global Education Network!

DECEMBER 04, 2020

One of FFI's flagship programs is its Global Education Network (GEN) certificate program, featured, typically, at the GEN Awards Ceremony at the annual global conference. This year, however, we are extremely pleased to invite all FFI members to join in celebrating the accomplishments of more than 100 GEN graduates in 2020 and to thank the generous companies who provide scholarships for the related courses and other required activities.

Please join GEN faculty chair Carlo Salvato, FFI Fellow Carmen Bianchi, GEN scholarship sponsors Linda Bourn, Francois de Visscher, Randy Waesche, and Asher Noor in this amazing ceremony (filmed live) highlighting the graduates, the faculty, and a successful conclusion to the 2020 GEN Program.

Sincere thanks to G. Tyge Payne for this podcast discussing the future of academic research in the family enterprise world. Tyge has been the editor of Family Business Review (FBR) since 2018 and will end his term on December 31, 2020. During his tenure, he has overseen the production of 12 issues and more than 50 articles. Tyge has also written a number of thought-provoking editorials, the most recent being in the December 2020 issue. He will be succeeded by Donald Neubaum from Florida Atlantic University, whose first issue will be March 2021.
