

PREPARED EXCLUSIVELY FOR FFI MEMBERS

Congratulations to the FBR Award Recipients

JULY 09, 2021

One of the hallmarks of FFI is its ongoing commitment to advance the field through publishing, practice, and research. In June, we were pleased to announce the 2021 Achievement Award Recipients and the 2021 Academic Award Recipients. Today, we celebrate more outstanding contributions to the field by announcing the 2021 Family Business Review Award recipients. These awards will be presented at the FFI Conference in October, either virtually or in London.

Best Family Business Review Article

The Best FBR Article Award is given each year to recognize and celebrate the strongest contribution in FBR, highlighting FBR's pioneering and anchoring role in the field of family business studies.

Recipients of the Best Article Award for an article published in Family Business Review in 2020 are Nancy B. Kurland and Sara Jane McCaffrey for their article "Community Socioemotional Wealth: Preservation, succession, and farming in Lancaster County, Pennsylvania."

About FBR

Published as a refereed journal since 1988, Family Business Review (FBR) is the leading scholarly publication devoted exclusively to exploration of the dynamics of family-controlled enterprise, including firms ranging in size from the very large to the relatively small. FBR, which is owned by the Family Firm Institute (FFI), is focused not only the entrepreneurial founding generation, but also on family enterprises in the 2nd and 3rd generation and beyond, including some of the oldest companies in the world. In addition, the journal publishes interdisciplinary research on families of wealth, family foundations and offices.

HIGHEST IMPACT FACTOR EVER

Congratulations to Family Business Review, whose 2020 impact factor of 9.848 is its highest impact factor ever. FBR is now ranked 12/153 in Business according to the Journal Citation Reports®, 2020 release, a Clarivate Analytics product.

PREVIOUS EDITION

This week, we recognize the Q2 2021 GEN graduates receiving Family Business Advising (CFBA), Family Wealth Advising (CFWA), Dual (CFBA and CFWA), and Advanced Certificates.

These individuals, coming from across the globe and across the disciplines, have accessed and completed programs of curated content and research-based resources with their peers and a highly skilled faculty, developing a global network of fellow students who advise and study multi-generational families.

Please join us in congratulating their outstanding achievement.
