Announcing the 2022 FFI Global Conference, October 26–29

APRIL 15, 2022

Today we are pleased to announce the 2022 Global Conference, “Family Enterprise and the Fourth Economy: Internal and External Pressures to Change and Adapt.” The 2022 conference will be held in Cambridge, MA, from October 26–29 and has been designed and created by the Conference Program Committee, chaired by FFI Fellow and MIT faculty member John Davis. It is presented in collaboration with the MIT Sloan School of Management, the 2022 academic host.

This year's event brings together speakers from around the world to share their latest thinking and research on the conference theme. Joining the conference will also be FFI's Futureonaut-in-residence, Mark Stevenson. Please join this global community of thought leaders to learn, reflect, and engage as together explore the many dimensions of "Family Enterprise and the Fourth Economy."

The keynote presentation and the accompanying sessions are organized as follows:

- Changing Family Dynamics
- Environmental Sustainability
- The Future of Work
- Societal Trends

Highlights of the program follow.
