

PREPARED EXCLUSIVELY FOR FFI MEMBERS

Celebrating the 10th Anniversary of the Iberoamérica Study Group

AUGUST 05, 2022

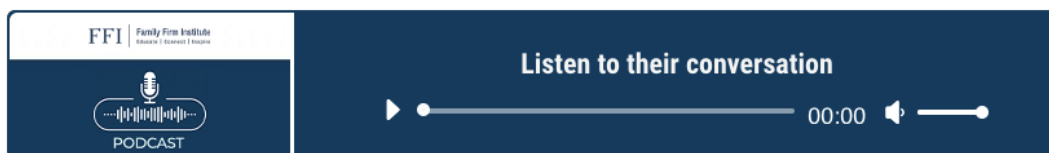

The Iberoamérica Study Group, which originated at the FFI conference in Brussels in 2012, is a Spanish-language online forum to educate, connect, and inspire members located in or interested in family enterprise issues in Latin America and Spain. Throughout its ten years, the Iberoamérica Study Group has extended FFI's core mission by focusing on education and multidisciplinary learning.

Please join us in recognizing the contributions of Iberoamérica Virtual Study Group.

The 2022 FFI Global Conference in Boston will host a tribute to the Iberoamérica Virtual Study Group during the Thursday breakfast on October 26. At this breakfast, FFI will present the 2022 International Award to Rodolfo Paiz. On Friday morning at the FFI Fellow Breakfast the Iberoamérica VSG Fellows will be recognized. We look forward to seeing you there!

Three founders of the Iberoamérica Study Group—Guillermo Salazar, Javier Macías, and Daniel Lorenzo—had a conversation with Jordan Rich about the founding of the group.

Thank you to the following members who have written for FFI Practitioner.
