

2022

PREPARED EXCLUSIVELY FOR FFI MEMBERS

Let's Start the New Year Right, Right Now

JANUARY 07, 2022

Happy New Year! We know that you were all thinking of Q1 in November and now you are probably thinking about Q2, but...here are some things to do right now, in January, to start the new year right with the many opportunities in FFI.

TODAY

Register for the 2022 FFI Global Conference in Boston-Cambridge at the Year End Rate. We have extended it through January 9—just for you.

OVER THE WEEKEND

Read the 2086 report, "The Governance Marathon: Advising Families-in-Business in Disruption-in-Disruptions" by authors Jeremy Cheng, Kevin Au, Marshall Jen, and Marta Widz.

OR...

The December issue of Family Business Review and the FFI Practitioner précis for the article “‘Over My Dead Body’: Wives’ Influence in Family Business Succession.”

LATER THIS MONTH

January 15

Enroll in the GEN program and start your path to a certificate in family business or family wealth advising. In 2021, more than 100 people completed one of the core programs and more than 30 completed one the advanced programs.

January 28

The last day to submit an education session proposal for the 2022 FFI conference.

January 30

Don't delay! Submit your dissertation, unpublished research paper, or GEN scholarship application before the deadlines arrive in March and April.

January 31

Submit an article for FFI Practitioner this month for possible publication in Q2 of FFI Practitioner.

PREVIOUS EDITION

Today, we recognize the accomplishment of the 2021 Q4 GEN graduates and Fellows.

These individuals, coming from across the globe and across the disciplines, have accessed and completed programs of curated content and research-based resources with their peers and a highly skilled faculty, developing a global network of fellow students who advise and study multi-generational families.

Please join us in congratulating their outstanding achievement.
