

PREPARED EXCLUSIVELY FOR FFI MEMBERS

Featuring FFI Authors

APRIL 19, 2024

F FI members, presenters, and award winners continue to lead research and guidance in the field and beyond, and we are pleased to feature their recent publications. Please help us continue this periodic feature by letting us know about books and reports we might have missed!

Patricia Annino

Italians of the North End: A History of Grit, Perseverance & Tradition* by Patricia Annino

Italians of the North End reveals the resilient journey from one of America's poorest slums to a place of opportunity. Once home to hardworking immigrant families from Italy, it was also the neighborhood of Sacco and Vanzetti, Charles Ponzi, and Rose Fitzgerald Kennedy. "La via vecchia" (the old way) is woven through its narrow, winding streets, brick buildings, restaurants and pastry shops. Today, neighbors and tourists alike meet for coffee and cannolis, unaware of the neighborhood's complex history.

Patricia Annino

Patricia M. Annino, FFI Fellow, is an attorney with Rimôn, P.C., in Boston. The 2022 recipient of the Richard Beckhard Practice Award, Patricia is a former member of the FFI Board of Directors, a founding member of the 2086 Society, and a frequent contributor to FFI Practitioner. She has been voted by her peers as one of the Best Lawyers in America, Estate Planner of the Year, and EuroMoney's "Best in Wealth Management – USA."

Justin Craig and Jolien Huybrechts

Women in Family Business: New Perspectives, Contexts and Roles*, edited by Mary Barrett, Jolien Huybrechts and Jean S K Lee. Foreword by Justin Craig.

In eleven chapters, Women in Family Business brings together new work by scholars of family business around the world: everything from a comprehensive literature review to case studies of family business women in a wide range of countries and cultures, to a big data analysis of women in top management teams in more than 30 million firms worldwide.

Justin Craig

Justin Craig, PhD, is a full professor of entrepreneurship and family enterprise, at Bond University. He has held faculty positions at Oregon State University, Northeastern University in Boston, and the Kellogg School of Management at Northwestern University, where he holds a visiting professorship. He has co-directed the Australian Centre for Family Business at Bond University with Professor Ken Moores and the Centre for Family Enterprises at Northwestern University's Kellogg School of Management with Professor John Ward.

Jolien Huybrechts

Jolien Huybrechts, PhD, is associate professor at Maastricht University, School of Business and Economics, Department of Organization, Strategy & Entrepreneurship, for which she is also department vice-chair. Her work focuses on family firms, nonfamily CEOs, corporate governance, female entrepreneurship, and risk-taking. She is 2020 co-recipient of the FBR Best Article Award.

Ken Moores

The Science of Business by Justin Craig and Ken Moores

Adopting a multidisciplinary approach, Justin Craig and Ken Moores reinforce the positioning of business as a science and remind the reader that those involved in the practice of business are, in fact, social scientists. Showcasing a novel science of business framework, the book is populated with economic, entrepreneurial, accounting, financial, marketing and management discipline perspectives.

Ken Moores

Ken Moores, PhD, Emeritus Professor at Bond University, Queensland, Australia, is also the founder of the Australian Centre for Research in Family Business as well as a former Vice-Chancellor and President at Bond. He is now Chairman of the consultancy firm Moores Family Enterprise. He is the 2015 recipient of the Barbara Hollander Award.

Edelman

2024 Edelman Trust Barometer

The 2024 Edelman Trust Barometer reveals a new paradox at the heart of society. Rapid innovation offers the promise of a new era of prosperity, but instead risks exacerbating trust issues, leading to further societal instability and political polarization.

While people agree that scientists are essential to the acceptance of innovation, many are concerned that politics has too much influence on science. This perception is contributing to the decline of trust in the institutions responsible for steering us through change and towards a more prosperous future.

Edelman is a global communications firm that partners with businesses and organizations to evolve, promote, and protect their brands and reputations. Edelman has remained an independent, family-run business since its founding in 1952. Across more than 60 offices worldwide, they deliver communications strategies that give clients the confidence to lead and act with certainty, earning the trust of their stakeholders.
