April 1 Deadline Approaching for Academic Awards

Submissions to the FFI Academic Awards are due in less than a month!

Since 1989, FFI has recognized academic excellence through the Best Doctoral Dissertation and Best Unpublished Research Paper awards. These awards recognize outstanding academic research in the study of family firms and their advisors.

The awards are open to academics worldwide—membership in FFI is not required. Please share this opportunity with your colleagues!

Best Doctoral Dissertation Award

The Best Doctoral Dissertation Award is given to encourage and recognize outstanding academic achievement in the field of family business study. The Best Dissertation Award is awarded annually after a blind, peer review of all submissions.

The 2026 Best Doctoral Dissertation Award is generously sponsored by CFAR.

In today's FFI on Friday issue, we continue to feature FFI's organizational members. The organizational members of FFI play a vital role in advancing the field of family enterprise advising through research, education, and practical expertise. Each of these five organizations brings deep experience serving multigenerational family businesses, family offices, and enterprising families around the world. From innovative research and governance advisory to next-generation development and strategic planning, their contributions exemplify the collaborative spirit that defines FFI.
