

GOVERNANCE

FFI Practitioner: The many facets of family enterprise governance

WEEKLY EDITION • APRIL 14, 2021

From FFI Practitioner

For years, family enterprise governance has been among the most popular topics for advisors in the field. This week, FFI Practitioner has curated select editions highlighting the many facets of governance that reflect the latest thinking in the field to help guide family enterprise advising and practice.

Corporate Governance

“How Corporate Governance Helps in Decision Making: A case study”

by Roberto Vainrub

“The B Corp: A global values framework for the family enterprise”

by Brett Coffman

Family Governance

“A Few Thoughts on Family Constitutions: An Indian perspective”

by Ashvini Chopra

Ownership Governance

“Ownership Strategy: The foundation of every family business”

by Ed van de Vijver

“The Utility of Buy-Sell Agreements for Family Enterprises”

by Dan Frosh

Interface Between Family and Business Governance

“The Natural Advantage of Family Businesses”

by Ken McCracken

“The Two Pillars of Governance in Family Enterprises: A straightforward understanding of complex systems”

by Jim Grubman and Dennis Jaffe

Interested in learning more about family governance?

Consider enrolling in GEN 502: Family Governance in the Family Enterprise: A key structural element in family enterprise governance

This course is offered online and is a part of FFI's Advanced Certificates in Family Business Advising and Family Wealth Advising.

LEARN MORE

© 2021 Family Firm Institute