

OTHER SURVEYS & STUDIES

FFI Practitioner: Articles by FFI GEN Advanced Certificate Faculty

WEEKLY EDITION • FEBRUARY 3, 2021

From FFI Practitioner

This week we are pleased to feature a collection of articles by faculty members for the FFI Global Education Network (GEN) advanced courses. These faculty members come from around the world and frequently share their expertise with FFI Practitioner readers.

GEN 502 Faculty Articles

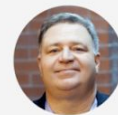

Accounting & Financial Services

“Direct Investing: Can this be the Second Coming for the family business?”

by Kirby Rosplock

READ MORE

Behavioral & Management

“Interdependent Wealth: How family systems theory illuminates successful intergenerational wealth transitions”

by Steve Legler

READ MORE

Models & Structures

“The Two Pillars of Governance in Family Enterprises: A straightforward understanding of complex systems”

by Dennis Jaffe and Jim Grubman

READ MORE

Sidebar

A graphic for the FFI Global Education Network. It features a central tablet displaying a video conference with several participants. The text 'FFI' is in blue and 'Global Education Network' is in orange. The background is light blue with icons of people and speech bubbles.

FFI | Global Education Network

If you would like to participate in a virtual course in April of this year with the faculty members from GEN 503 and GEN 504, please go here to register.

REGISTER FOR GEN 503

REGISTER FOR GEN 504

For more information on the courses themselves, go here.

GEN 503 & 504 Faculty Articles

Podcast

“Andrew Hier receives FFI Award”

Jordan Rich interviews Andrew Hier

LISTEN HERE

Other Surveys & Studies

“Commentary #2 on Professionalizing the Business Family: A research report sponsored by the FFI 2086 Society”

by Maya Prabhu

READ MORE

Family Office

“The Reality of Relevancy in the Family Office System: Exploring forces and key drivers that can affect relevancy”

by Jim Coutre

READ MORE