

CONFLICT

FFI Practitioner: Conflict in family enterprises

WEEKLY EDITION • MARCH 2, 2022

From FFI Practitioner

All family enterprise systems will experience conflict at some point. This week, we are pleased to share a collection of articles published in FFI Practitioner that highlight the impacts of conflict within family enterprises and provide suggestions to advisors to help guide their work helping their clients to manage these conflicts.

“Eight Strategies for Conflict Management in Family Meetings”

by Mariana Martinez

READ THE ARTICLE

“Harnessing the Power of Being Heard”

by Jane Beddall

READ THE ARTICLE

“Learn to Live Together, Separate, or Continue in Conflict?”

by Javier Macías

READ THE ARTICLE

“The Tao of Conflict Resolution in Family Businesses”

by Yukio Fujimi, Chikako Kishihara, and Kazuyoshi Takei

READ THE ARTICLE

“Three Communication Skills for Breaking Through Impenetrable Barriers”

by Mitzi Perdue and Amy Castoro

READ THE ARTICLE

Sidebar

“Working with Conflict in the Family Enterprise”

Wednesday, April 6, 2022 8AM-12PM Eastern

Conflict is a natural part of family enterprises, and how to support families in managing their conflict is an art and a science that mediators have researched and practiced. This half-day seminar, presented by FFI, intends to introduce you to common family conflict models, styles and tools to use while working with enterprising families. During the session, the faculty will introduce a range of tools as well as support you in understanding your own biological reactions to conflict.

Faculty: John Wofford, Mediator, Jane Beddall, Dovetail Resolutions, and Natalie McVeigh, EisnerAmper

LEARN MORE AND REGISTER